God made me to do big things.

Today, your child made a lion and sheep stick puppet to tell the story of David protecting his sheep (1 Samuel 17:34-37). You and your child can use their stick puppets, along with the text below, to retell the story at home.

One day, David was out in a field watching his sheep. (Make the sheep "walk" around.) David knew taking care of the sheep was a big thing to do, because God made him to do big things anywhere.

While David was watching his sheep, a hungry lion came prowling around. (Make the lion "walk" near the sheep.) Oh no! The lion is going to try and get the sheep!

Well, David was a good shepherd. He was not going to let a lion hurt his sheep. David quickly ran to the lion and fought it until it ran away. (Make the lion "run away.")

Yay! David the super shepherd did a very big thing and protected the sheep! (Make the sheep "dance" around.)

God made me to do big things.
